A Note from Fr. Niranjan Rodrigo

I just started my ministry to the community of Infant Savior. I was impressed by the welcome that you all gave me when I arrived here. I especially extend my sincere thanks to the members of Knights of Columbus for hosting a Coffee Hour to welcome me.

I am so inspired to see how you continue to grow spiritually in your appreciation of one another's service and gifts in the community. Infant Savior appears to be a very active parish liturgically because of the involvement and cooperation of many parishioners and volunteers. As I begin to serve this community of faith, I am trying to get to know you all gradually with the grace of God. It is a blessing to see such an active participation and the presence of many parishioners in the ministry of this Church. I had been serving in the Archdiocese of New York since 2001 and got incardinated into it. I had been the administrator of St. Joan of Arc parish in Sloatsburg since 2011. I was parochial vicar of St. Theresa of the Infant Jesus in the Bronx, 2010-2011; St. John the Evangelist in Goshen, 2005-2010, and St. Paul's in Congers, 2001-2005. And this is will be my fifth assignment in the Archdiocese.

I can sense how you all feel when you have to face changes in the priestly ministry in your parish. You have seen a few priests come and go during last few months. Also, it is my personal experience that it is not easy to go through a transition, especially in the early days of a new parish appointment. I pray that with the grace of God, I may come to know you all and the ministry of this parish. I wish all of you good health and happiness. Thank you all for welcoming me. Please, be assured that you are all in my prayers.

Yours in Christ, Fr. Niranjan Rodrigo
